This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. CONSTITUTION

[ADOPTED MARCH 23, 1874; REVISED AND AMENDED.]

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This Association shall be called "THE BAR ASSOCIATION OF ST. LOUIS."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

This Association is established to maintain the honor and dignity of the profession of the law, to cultivate social intercourse among its members, and for the promotion of legal science, and of the administration of justice.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

[AS AMENDED MARCH 3, 1902.]

SECTION 1. The members of the Bar who have signed the preliminary resolutions adopted at the first meeting held in the Circuit Court-room, No. 2, on the evening of March 16, 1874, are hereby declared members of this Association; but such of them as shall omit to subscribe to this constitution and pay the admission fee on or before the fourth day of April, 1874, shall cease to be members, and can only become such by subsequent admission. Any member of the profession, in good standing, residing or practicing in the City of St. Louis, may become a member, by vote of the Association, on recommendation of the Committee on Admissions, as hereinafter provided. Members of the profession of the State of Missouri, in good standing, neither residing nor practicing in the City of St. Louis, may in like manner, become members of this Association, having all the privileges of the same, except that of voting.

Digitized by Google

SEC. 2. The Committee on Admissions shall have power to make such regulations in relation to proposals for membership and notice thereof as they may, from time to time, deem needful, subject to revision and alteration, from time to time, by the Association. Candidates against whom there shall be two negative votes in the committee, shall not be recommended for admission. Upon being recommended, a vote by ballot shall be taken in the Association, and one negative in every five votes cast shall exclude the candidate.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

The officers of the Association shall be a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Executive Committee of five members, including in said number the President and Treasurer as members ex officio, and a Committee on Admissions, to consist of nine members. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer shall hold office for the term of one year, except those who shall be first elected, whose term of office shall expire at the first annual meeting herein provided. These officers and committees shall be forthwith elected. And an annual election shall be held in each and every year at the annual meeting of the Association, at which time their successors, as provided for in this article, shall be elected. The Association may provide by its by-laws for such other standing committees as it may deem necessary.

The members elect of the Executive Committee, and the Committee on Admissions when elected, shall divide themselves into three classes of equal numbers each. The first class of each committee shall hold office for two years after the first annual meeting in November, 1874, the second class one year, and the third class until the first annual meeting in November, 1874; and thereafter at each annual election there shall be elected one member of the Executive Committee and three members of the Committee on Admissions, to hold office three years; and such additional number, if any, as may be necessary to fill vacancies, to hold office during the remainder of the term of the members whose places they fill. No member of either of these committees shall be re-eligible to the committee of which he may be a member, for one year after the termination of his term of office.

Digitized by Google

ARTICLE V.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee shall manage the affairs of the Association, subject to the constitution and by-laws, and shall provide a permanent place for use of the Association.

ARTICLE VI.

JUDICIARY.

Any member of the Association who may be or become a judge or justice of any court of record, shall be, and while he shall hold such office, continue an honorary member of the Association, and shall be entitled to all its privileges, except that of voting, without payment of annual dues.

ARTICLE VII.

MEETINGS.

[AS AMENDED JAN. 6, 1902.]

There shall be an annual meeting of the Association on the first Monday of October in each year, and a stated meeting on the first Mondays of January, March and May. At these annual and stated meetings, and at any regular adjourned meeting thereof, all the powers of the Association may be exercised. Special meetings may be called at any time by the Executive Committee, and shall be called upon the written request of ten members of the Association. At such special meetings no business shall be transacted, except such as shall be specified in the call thereof. The presence of ten members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Association.

ARTICLE VIII.

ANNUAL DUES.

[AS AMENDED MARCH 6, 1899, AND MARCH 3, 1902.]

The annual dues shall be five dollars, payable in advance, on the first Monday in April of each year; provided, however, that a different amount may be fixed in the by-laws.

ARTICLE IX.

SUSPENSIONS AND EXPULSIONS.

Any member of the Association may be suspended or expelled for misconduct in his relations to this Association or in his profession, on conviction thereof, in such manner as may be prescribed by the by-laws.

ARTICLE X.

TERMS OF OFFICE.

This Constitution shall go into immediate effect, and an election of officers and committees herein provided for shall forthwith be had. They shall hold their office until their successors are elected in accordance with the constitution and by-laws.

ARTICLE XI.

ELECTIONS AND APPOINTMENTS.

All elections shall be by ballot. The officers elected shall enter upon their duties immediately upon their election, and shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed. In case of a vacancy in any office, it shall be filled by appointment of the Executive Committee until the next annual election, except in the case of a vacancy occurring in the office of President, which shall be filled by the Association at its first stated meeting occurring more than ten days after happening of such vacancy.

ARTICLE XII.

AMENDMENTS.

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any stated or annual meeting of the Association, provided that notice of the proposed amendment, subscribed by three members, be given at a previous meeting.

ARTICLE XIII.

INCORPORATION.

This Association shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of Missouri as soon as practicable after the adoption of this Constitution; and the President is charged with the duty of obtaining the certificate of incorporation. Until such incorporation all money and property of said Association shall be vested in the President and Treasurer, as trustees thereof, who shall pay over and deliver the same to said corporation as its property so soon as created. No member of this Association shall have any individual right to any property thereof.

BY-LAWS

[REVISED AND AMENDED.]

I.

THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association, and in case of his absence, one of the Vice-Presidents shall preside.

II.

THE SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of all meetings and of all other matters of which a record shall be deemed advisable by the Association, and shall conduct the correspondence of the Association with the concurrence of the President. He shall notify the officers and members of their election, and shall keep a roll of the members, and shall issue notices of all meetings.

III.

THE TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall collect, and, under the direction of the Executive Committee, disburse all funds of the Association; he shall report annually, and oftener if required, he shall keep regular accounts, which shall be, at all times, open to inspection of any member of the Executive Committee. His accounts shall be audited by the Executive Committee.

IV.

MEETINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee shall meet at least once a month, except in July, August and September. They shall have power to make such regulations, not inconsistent with the constitution and by-laws as shall be necessary for the protection of the property of the Association, and for the preservation of good order in the conduct of its affairs. They shall keep a record of their proceedings, which shall be read at the ensuing meeting of the Association; and it shall be their duty to present business for the action of the Association. They shall have no power to make the Association liable for any debts amounting to more than half of the amount in the Treasurer's hands, in cash, and not subject to prior liabilities.

Digitized by Google

V.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

At each annual, stated or adjourned meeting of the Association, the order of business shall be as follows:

1. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting.
2. Report of Executive Committee.
3. Report of Treasurer.
4. Report of Committee on Admissions.
5. Elections, if any.
6. Reports of other Standing Committees.
7. Reports of Special Committees.
8. Miscellaneous business.

This order of business may be changed by a vote of the majority of the members present.

The parliamentary rules and orders contained in Cushing's Manual, except as otherwise herein provided, shall govern all meetings of the Association.

VI.

REQUIREMENTS OF CANDIDATES ELECT.

If any person elected does not, within one month after notice of his election, signify his acceptance by signing the constitution and by-laws, he shall be deemed to have declined to become a member.

Digitized by Google

VII.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

In pursuance of Article IV of the Constitution, there shall be the following standing committees:

(a) A Committee on the Amendment of the Law, who shall be charged with the duty of attention to all proposed changes in the law, and of recommending such as in their opinion may be entitled to the favorable influence of this Association.

(b) A Judiciary Committee, who shall be charged with the duty of the observation of the working of our judicial system, the collection of information, the entertaining and examination of projects for a change or reform in the system, and of recommending, from time to time, to the Association, such action as they may deem expedient.

(c) A Committee on Grievances, who shall be charged with the hearing of all complaints which may be made in matters affecting the interests of the legal profession, and the practice of the law, and the administration of justice, and to report the same to this Association, with such recommendations as they may deem advisable; and said committee shall, in behalf of the Association, institute and carry on such proceedings against offenders, and to such extent as the Association may order, the cost of such proceedings to be paid by the Executive Committee, out of moneys subject to appropriation by them.

(d) A Committee on Legal Education, who shall be charged with the duty of examining and reporting what changes it is expedient to propose in the system and mode of legal education and of admission to the practice of the profession in the State of Missouri.

VIII.

OFFICIAL TERMS, POWERS AND DUTIES OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

Each of the committees named in the foregoing by-laws

Digitized by Google

shall be a committee of five, and shall be appointed annually by the President of the Association, and shall continue in office until the annual meeting of the Association, next after their appointment, and until their successors are appointed, with power to fill vacancies and to adopt rules for their own government. Any standing committee of the Association may by rule provide that three successive absences from the meetings of the committee, unexcused, shall be deemed a resignation, by the member so absent, of his place upon the committee.

Any standing committee of the Association may by rule impose upon its members a fine for non-attendance, and may provide for the disposition of the fines collected under such rule.

IX.

TRIALS.

Whenever any complaint shall be preferred against a member of the Association, for misconduct in his relation to this Association or in his profession, the member or members preferring such complaint shall present it to the Committee on Grievances, in writing, and subscribed by him or them, plainly stating the matter complained of, with particulars of time, place and circumstances.

The committee shall thereupon examine the complaint, and if they are of the opinion that the matters therein alleged are of sufficient importance, shall cause a copy of the complaint, together with a notice of not less than five days, of the time and place when the committee will meet for the consideration thereof, to be served on the member complained of, either personally, or by leaving the same at his place of business during office hours, properly addressed to him. If, after hearing his explanation, the committee shall deem it proper that there should be a trial of the charge, they shall cause a similar notice of five days of the time and place of trial to be served on the party complained of. At the time and place appointed, or at such other time as may be granted by the committee, the member complained of shall file a written answer or defense; or should he fail to do so, the committee may proceed thereupon to the consideration of the complaint.

The committee shall thereupon, and at such other times and place as they may adjourn to, proceed to try the said complaint, and shall determine all questions of evidence.

The complainant and the member complained of shall each be allowed to appear personally and by counsel, who must be members of the Association. The witnesses shall vouch for the truth of their statements on their word of honor. The committee shall have power to summon witnesses, and, if members of the Association, a neglect or refusal to appear may be reported to the Association, and treated as misconduct.

The committee, of whom at least four must be present at the trial, except that a less number may adjourn from time to time, shall hear and decide the allegations and proofs thus submitted to them; and if they find the complaint, or any part of it to be true, they shall so report to the Association, with their recommendation as to the action to be taken thereon.

The decision of the committee shall be served on the member complained of, and if the decision be that the complaint, or any part thereof is true, and in that case only, the committee shall also serve a copy of the complaint, answer and decision on the President of the Association; and if requested by either the member or members complaining, or the member complained of, shall annex thereto a copy of the evidence taken, which said documents shall be regarded as a report of the committee to the Association.

The President shall thereupon call a special meeting of the Association, on a notice of not less than ten days, for the consideration of the report, specifying in the call the object thereof; and of which special meeting the member complained of shall have due notice.

The Association shall thereupon proceed to take such action on said report, as they may see fit, provided only that no member shall be expelled unless by the vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.

Whenever a trial shall be determined on, the member complained of may object peremptorily to any one or more of the committee, not exceeding two; and the places of those objected to shall be supplied from the members of the Association by the remaining members of the committee, for the purposes of the trial.

All the foregoing proceedings shall be kept secret, except as their publication is hereinbefore provided for, unless otherwise ordered by the Association.

X.

NOMINATIONS.

Nominations of candidates to fill the respective offices may be made at the time of election by any member, and as many candidates may be nominated for each office as members may wish to name.

XI.

AMENDMENTS.

These by-laws may be amended at any stated, adjourned or annual meeting of the Association, by a vote of two-thirds of those present; provided that ten days' notice, in writing, of the proposed amendment, has been given to the Executive Committee.

XII.

RESIGNATIONS.

[AS AMENDED MARCH 6, 1899.]

Any member may resign at any time upon the payment of all dues to the Association.

From the date of the receipt by the Secretary of a notice of resignation, with an indorsement thereon by the Treasurer that all dues have been paid as above provided, the person giving such notice shall cease to be a member of the Association.

RULES OF THE COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS

I.

The officers of this committee shall be a Chairman and Secretary, who shall be elected at the meeting at which these rules are adopted. Elections of officers thereafter shall take place at the first regular meeting of the committee, after the annual election of the Bar Association, and shall hold office until their successors are elected.

II.

The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the committee when present. In his absence the committee shall elect a Chairman pro tem.

III.

The Secretary shall keep full and complete records of the transactions of this committee, and an index to the same, in a book or books suitable for that purpose.

IV.

The regular meetings of this committee shall be held on the first Mondays of October, December, February and April. Special meetings may be called at any time, by order of the Chairman.

V.

Applications for admission to the Association shall be in writing, signed by the applicant, and directed to the "Secretary of the Committee on Admissions." Each application shall contain the following particulars:

1. The full name and age of the applicant, his present place of residence and business, giving street and number.

2. The date and place of his birth, giving exact day and year if possible.

Digitized by Google

3. Where educated, and if a graduate of any institution of learning, the name of the institution, and when he graduated.

4. When, where and with whom he studied law.

5. When and where he was first admitted to the bar.

6. When admitted to the bar in this state, and where.

7. When enrolled at the St. Louis bar.

8. Each of the places where he has practiced law, and how long at each place.

9. At his option the applicant may give the names of two or more persons with whom he is acquainted in the City or County of St. Louis.

VI.

The Secretary shall furnish printed forms of application in conformity with Rule No. 5, for the use of applicants; and no application shall be entertained by this committee, unless made upon such form, or shall contain the particulars required by Rule No. 5. The Secretary shall also keep a record of all applications for admissions in a book provided for that purpose, in which shall be printed forms corresponding to those used by applicants.

VII.

Unless otherwise ordered by the committee, all applications for admission shall be referred to a sub-committee of three to be appointed by the chairman, who shall examine into the character and standing of the applicant, and his fitness for admission, and report to the committee at its next meeting.

VIII.

The vote upon the recommendation of applicants shall be by ballot. No member of the committee shall disclose to any person the discussions of the committee, or statements, or ballots of any member thereof, with respect to any applicant; nor shall the result of any ballot be disclosed to any person other than the applicant. If any member of the committee shall be guilty of a violation of this rule, it shall be the duty of the chairman, upon being so advised, to cause an investigation of such alleged violation, and if the charges are found to be true by the committee, to report the charges and the finding of said committee to the Association at its next meeting, for its action.

IX.

No ballot shall be had at any meeting of this committee upon the recommendation of an applicant to the Association for admission, when less than five members of the committee are present; and every member of the committee so present, shall be required to vote upon such recommendation.

X.

The order of business of this committee shall be as follows:
Reading of minutes.
Reports of sub-committees.
Reading applications.
Unfinished business.
Election of officers.
Miscellaneous business.

UNIVERSAL CONGRESS OF LAWYERS AND JURISTS OF 1903

Resolutions adopted at a special meeting of the Bar Association of St. Louis on the 15th day of October, 1901:

"Whereas, The Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company has determined to hold 'An Universal Congress of Lawyers and Jurists of the World' in this city during the year 1903 in connection with the Louisiana Purchase Centennial Exposition, and with the co-operation of the American Bar Association; and

"Whereas, The American Bar Association, at its recent annual meeting at Denver, approved and endorsed the holding of such congress and provided for the appointment of a special committee composed of one member from each state and territory of the Union, including the District of Columbia, to co-operate with the authorities of the said Exposition Company in bringing about such congress, and further requested the Executive Committee of said Association to take all necessary and appropriate steps to promote and carry out the plan of holding such congress; and

"Whereas, The Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company has requested the assistance and co-operation of this Association in planning and carrying out the holding of such congress;

"Now, Therefore,

"Be it Resolved, by the Bar Association of St. Louis, That we cordially approve and commend the action of the Exposition Company and the American Bar Association in providing for this great educational event, so full of interest to the lawyers and jurists of the world, and we hereby pledge our Association and its members to do all within their power to assist in making the same a pronounced success.

Digitized by Google

"Resolved, also, That a special committee of nine members of this Association be appointed by the Executive Committee, to be known as Special Committee on 'The Universal Congress of Lawyers and Jurists of 1903,' to co-operate with the committees representing the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, the American Bar Association and the National Commission of the Louisiana Centennial in planning and holding such congress;

"Resolved, further, That the Executive Committee of this Association be requested to take all necessary and appropriate steps to promote and carry out the holding of such congress, and also the holding of the annual meeting of the American Bar Association in St. Louis in 1903;

"Resolved, further, That copies of these resolutions be transmitted to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, the American Bar Association and the National Commission of the Louisiana Centennial, and that when the committee provided for herein shall be appointed the names of the members thereof shall be sent to them."

[The names of those appointed to the special committee above established will be found under the heading "Officers and Committees."]
